I. Resolutions

1. Administrator Epperson presented Council with a Resolution in support of refunding outstanding bonds on the Clarendon County Administration Building. He continued by stating that the County would save money because we would receive better interest rates.

Mr. Michael Kozlarek, Attorney, stated that the interest rates went down since 2010. He stated the county would be paying $700,000 in interest verses 1.3 or 1.4 Million in interest. Mr. Kozlarek continued by stating that there is a trip planned to New York to update a credit presentation which would include a debt saving and reconstruction of the bonds.

Mr. Bobby Baker, The Manning Times, asked would the payment change.

Attorney Kozlarek responded by stating that it depends on the interest rate.

On motion by Councilman English, and seconded by Councilman Richardson, Council voted Unanimous Approval to the Resolution in support of refunding outstanding bonds on the Clarendon County Administration Building and traveling to New York to make the presentation.

2. Administrator Epperson presented Council with a Resolution Declaring March 28, 2015 as "Ann Kirven Day" in Clarendon County.

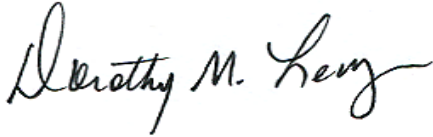

On motion by Councilman Richardson and seconded by Councilman English, Council voted Unanimous Approval to the Resolution declaring March 28, 2015 as Ann Kirven Day" in Clarendon County.

XV. Adjournment

Chairman Stewart stated that we have exhausted our agenda and he asked for a motion to adjourn.

On motion by Councilman Richardson and seconded by Councilman English, Council voted Unanimous Approval to adjourn the council meeting. The Council Meeting ended at 9:20 am.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dorothy M. Levy
Clerk to Clarendon County Council
